

Andrew Lee

Andy has 30 years of family history experience. During high school, he wrote a contest winning essay about an American Revolution ancestor. As a member of Toastmaster's International, Andy has achieved the status of Competent Communicator and has won several storytelling contests. He has given presentations throughout the US and Canada to professional organizations, university classes, local genealogy societies, family history conferences, and Boy Scout organizations. Andy's topics range beyond genealogy to include engineering, problem-solving, finances, business building and emergency preparedness. He's the co-author of A Recipe for Writing Family History and contributes to the FamilyHistoryFanatics.com YouTube channel.
